Arurog Fishing Trunk

It's hard to imagine storing the day's catch in this exquisitely crafted Arurog wicker trunk, though its name may have more to do with its resemblance to fishing trunks of old than with its actual use. The leather-topped basket would be better off holding heirloom lace than day-old halibut.

Campaign Trunks

American Matthew Brill possibly designed these trunks upon waking from dreams of the Old World. Only the finest mahogany wood, cow leather, brass accents, and locks made of hardy metal go into the construction of these vintage-like storage boxes — the perfect place to store priceless memories.
